

~~SECRET~~

Approved For Release 2002/06/10 : CIA-RDP68-00140R000200430024-7

ENCLOSURE 1

COMPARISON OF THE SERVICE PROVIDED FIRST CLASS
AND ECONOMY CLASS PASSENGERS ON TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIGHTS

SERVICE	FIRST CLASS	ECONOMY
Flight Attendants	Three (3)	Two (2) to Three (3)
Cocktails	Complimentary	On Sale
Wine Service	Complimentary	On Sale
Bar Service	Complimentary	On Sale
Meal Service	Canapes, Hors d'oeuvres, Entree (choice of three. Filet Mignon, Lobster, Prime Roast Beef), Salad, Dessert, Liquors	Soup or juice Casserole type meal Dessert Liquors (On Sale)
Refreshment Service	Sandwiches, pastries, and fruit	Cake
Seating *	32 seats (8 rows - 2 abreast) Size: 22" wide and 48" fore and aft Hassock for feet	93 seats (15-16 rows - 3 abreast) Size: 17 3/4" wide (aisle) and 17" wide (other) and 34" fore and aft
Free Baggage	Sixty-six pounds (66#)	Fourty-four pounds (44#)
Giveaways	Flight bags, cigarettes, Gum/mints	Gum/mints
Infants	Baby kits containing diapers, pins, baby powder, baby food, bassinets	Same as first class
Berths	None	None

* Jet aircraft are constructed to provide six variable seating versions of 32 first class/93 economy class to 52 first class/63 economy class seats. These variable arrangements are dependent upon the reservation sales for the two classes of accommodations on each flight.

Approved For Release 2002/06/10 : CIA-RDP68-00140R000200430024-7

~~SECRET~~